Workshops continue the emphasis on shoka...

After our Chapter Day workshop in September when Pat Maguire taught the workshop on moribana, we returned to shoka with Jeanne Holy's teaching of betsuden shoka and Linnea Storm's workshop on maze-ike (mixed) shoka, thus exploring more of the many forms of shoka. In October we also studied free style arrangements with Jeanne Holy. Photos are available on the website from these and earlier workshops.

Upcoming December Workshop

On December 20th we will return to the Mesa Rose Garden for one of our most popular workshops, pine and roses and more! Marylou Coffman will teach a class on nageire, that most welcoming arrangement so appropriate for the holidays. And this just in time for your holiday decorating! This is an afternoon event, so mark your calendars and watch for the evite coming soon.

Once again Ikebana of Arizona will exhibit arrangements from several different schools of Ikebana over the weekend of December 5 – 7. In addition to Ikenobo arrangements, the Ohara and Sogetsu schools will also be represented. This is a great opportunity to introduce friends to the art of Ikebana. Bring them to the museum and let them experience this ancient art form in the Asian galleries. The museum will be open Friday from 10 AM until 10 PM as this is a first Friday. Hours Saturday are 10

AM to 5 PM; Sunday hours are 12 PM until 5

Spring Workshops with the Professor from Japan

We have received confirmation of the dates of the annual visit by a Japanese professor of Ikenobo. Professor Makoto Fujii will be leading workshops Wednesday and Thursday, March 4th and 5th, and presenting a demonstration on Friday, March 6th. We will again be at Chaparral Suites Hotel in Scottsdale. Mark your calendars for these special days!

Visit our website or Facebook page for the latest information on classes and to view pictures from previous workshops.
