

A QUICK SUMMARY OF 2013-2014 EVENTS

Last month saw the last of this year's workshops which included shokas, moribana, free styles, nageire, and rikkas! We are busy planning next year's schedule of workshops and inviting teachers to participate. The complete schedule will appear in the yearbook to be distributed at our September Chapter Day which is planned for September 20, 2014, at the Scottsdale Senior Center, and we look forward to seeing everyone at this special event. ❖

NEW NAME PLATE DESIGN

The Ikenobo Name Plate has a new design this year! Applicants for diploma #2, "Shoden," through diploma #14, "Sokako" will have one design while higher ranks (diplomas #12 through #14) will have a different design. An applicant for diploma #2 will also receive a new card holder and case. As a special measure, for applications for diplomas #3 through #11 accepted between now and December, 2014, a new name card holder will be given at no charge. This is an added incentive to pursue the next level diploma this year! The name cards and holders are used for exhibitions and other special Ikenobo events. ❖

PHOENIX ART MUSEUM EXHIBIT

Japanese Masks & Prints of NOH Theatre

Quiet Rage, Gentle Wail: Japanese Masks and Prints of Noh Theater are currently on display at Phoenix Art Museum through November 16th. A performance of Noh Theater will take place in the museum's Whiteman Auditorium on June 28th at 1 PM. This is an opportunity to be introduced to this ancient form of dance, drama, and music once enjoyed by the samurai! For more information check the museum website <http://phxart.org> or contact Linnéa Storm (lrstorm@cox.net). ❖
